Terms of Additional Functionality valid from 30.07.2025

1. "WP connect” Additional Function for the WP Account is provided by WP to WP Account Users.
2. WP connect enables a WP Account User to access and use services that are not Wirtualna Polska Services, i.e. services provided by natural persons, legal persons and organizational units without legal personality, which provide services on the Internet in their own name and under their own responsibility. WP reserves the right to enable the use of the WP Account only for specific services outside of Wirtualna Polska Services.
3. By using WP connect, a WP Account User may:
    a. obtain access to the User’s data outside of Wirtualna Polska Services and make them available in the registration process for services outside of Wirtualna Polska Services;
    b. register in services outside of Wirtualna Polska Services using the WP Account;
    c. log into services outside of Wirtualna Polska Services;
    d. use WP Account to otherwise obtain access to services outside of Wirtualna Polska Services;
4. By using WP connect, the User obtains access to the User’s data from the WP Account and may save them on forms and in other locations outside the Wirtualna Polska Portal and outside of Wirtualna Polska Services. The User itself transfers the User's data presented to him/her using WP connect outside of Wirtualna Polska Services.

5. By using WP connect, the User authorizes WP to use the WP Account to confirm, in each case, the correctness of the User's login to third parties providing services outside of Wirtualna Polska Services.
6. When confirming the correctness of the User's login using the WP Account to third parties providing services outside of Wirtualna Polska Services, WP transfers to these entities only the data that is indispensable for the User's correct login using the WP Account, such as the e-mail address and the web identifiers linked to the e-mail address, solely for the purpose of the correct use of WP connect.
7. WP does not provide services outside of Wirtualna Polska Services and will not be liable for the use of services outside of Wirtualna Polska Services by the User.
8. WP reserves the right to discontinue access the WP connect service at any time, both in its entirety and with respect to individual services outside of Wirtualna Polska Services.
9. The Rules and Regulations of the WP Account shall apply to matters not regulated by the Rules and Regulations of WP's "WP connect" Additional Function
